The Berlin Arts and Entertainment District assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of the information provided by the artist above.

It is the sole responsibility of the individual artist to be familiar with the provisions of the laws offering incentives to qualifying artists in a Maryland Arts and Entertainment District. Copies of the original Maryland legislation, changes to the law, definitions, as well as forms for tax preparation, are all provided as a courtesy on the Berlin A&E website under the link to Legislation.

If any additional information or assistance is required, please contact us at info@berlinmdarts.org. There is also a link to Maryland contacts on the Legislation link at our website, <http://www.berlinmdarts.org>

The A&E District committee is maintaining a list of registered 'qualifying residing artists' as a requirement of the program. We will send an acknowledgement of receipt of this form.
